

Meeting the Escalating Need for PPE

THE THREAT TO OUR HEALTHCARE WORKERS AS EVIDENCED IN EUROPE

SPAIN¹

9,444 have tested positive for the virus

12% of cases nationally

ITALY²

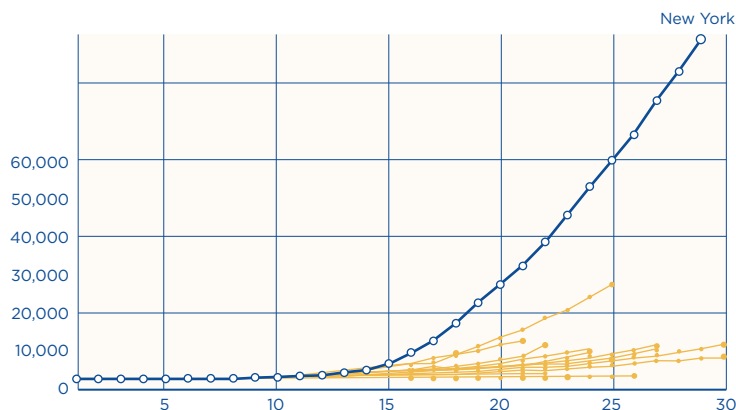

8,358 have tested positive for the virus

9% of cases nationally

WHERE HEALTHCARE WORKERS ARE BEING HIT HARDEST

How Coronavirus Has Spread in Each State³

HERE'S HOW ANYONE CAN HELP

Tell Congress to increase PPE distribution now.
<https://p2a.co/mitTO13>

Donate to COVID-19 fundraisers.
<https://www.gofundme.com/c/act/covid19>

Resources

¹ Health Alert and Emergency Coordination Centre, March 27 ² National Institute of Health, March 30 ³ The COVID Tracking Project ⁴ National Nurses United Survey

Updated May 7, 2020

AN ESCALATING NEED FOR TEMPORARY BEDS

NYC is seeking to add 65,000 temporary beds across the city and its harbors.

A 1.8 million sq/ft convention center

Colleges

A Navy Hospital Ship

A Cruise Terminal

The U.S. Open Tennis Complex

A Horse-Racing Track

20 Hotels

OUR HEALTHCARE HEROES ARE OVEREXPOSED TO RISK

ONLY 30%⁴ of US nurses work at facilities with enough PPE.

WHAT WE KNOW FROM SARS

20% of the 2002 SARS cases were in healthcare workers.

WE ALL MUST DO EVERYTHING WE CAN TO PROTECT HEALTHCARE WORKERS

On March 22nd, Burlington Medical contacted Virginia Governor Ralph Northam and volunteered to manufacture PPE to assist with the massive shortage facing healthcare workers.

While our provision of radiation protection apparel for providers is unwavering, we have increased capacity and resources to provide various PPE that is in critically short supply.